Day-1

(Chapter-4)

Questions for Descriptive Answer:

(3) What do you mean by Tajwid? Mention what benefit do you get by reciting the Quran with correct pronunciation?

Answer: Tajwid means rules of reciting the Holy Quran correctly. Tajwid describes Makhraj, Idgam, Gunnah.

We shall be able to know about allah, about the whereabouts of his messages, about his messengers, prophets, about his angels and about the life after death if we study the Quran with understanding the meaning. Also we study the Quran, we shall be able to know who is our creator, who gives us food? Who is our guardian? Who is most powerful? Who is the owner of all? Who is the only peace maker? So it is necessary to know reciting the Quran with correct pronunciation.

(4) Who do you mean by Makhraj? Answer with example?

Answer: Makhraj means the organs inside the mouth from which Arabic letters are pronounced.

Jajam or Sakin should be given on it and Alif having harkat should be placed to the right of it. While pronouncing the organ where the sound is stopped, is the Makhraj or pronouncing place organ of that letter. For example—Alif ba Jaber = (AB) Here during the pronunciation of letter Ba sound is stopped at two lips, So Makhraj of the letter Ba is both lips of the mouth. Similarly Alif Kha Jabar = (AKH), Here the sound is stopped at the larynx to pronounce the letter (KHA). So the Makhraj of the letter (KHA) is the larynx.
